

1st SEPTEMBER 2017

DAILY VOCABULARY LIST

❖ Eavesdrop (verb) (छिपकर बातें सुनना): Secretly listen to a conversation.

Synonyms: Listen In, Overhear, Snoop, Ears Into.

Antonyms: Ignore, Neglect.

Example: Younger siblings often eavesdrop on their older siblings which causes them to be labeled as pests.

❖ Spurn (verb) (अस्वीकार करना): Reject with disdain or contempt.

Synonyms: Refuse, Decline, Reject, Rebuff, Turn Down, Repudiate.

Antonyms: Accept, Admire, Allow, Approve, Embrace.

Example: The political tension in the Country was heightened as the leaders spurned all overtures to peace.

❖ Ubiquitous (adj.) (सर्वत्रव्यापी): Present, appearing, or found everywhere.

Synonyms: Omnipresent, Everywhere, All-Over, Pervasive

Antonyms: Rare, Scarce, Hardly Found.

Example: People believe that god is ubiquitous.

❖ Shackle (verb) (रोकना): Restrain; limit.

Synonyms: Restrain, Restrict, Limit, Constrain; Hamper, Hinder, Impede.

Antonyms: Aid, Assist, Allow, Promote, Expedite.

Example: My lack of funds is the shackle that prevents me from travelling.

❖ Putative (adj.) (कल्पित): Generally considered or reputed to be.

Synonyms: Presumed, Presumptive, Supposed, Conjectural, Suppositional.

Antonyms: Proven, Real, True.

Example: Even though there has not been a DNA test, everyone accepts Jason as the girl's putative father.